

【Attention: Users of levee and riverbank roads】

The levee and riverbank roads on each route were not built as cycling paths. River administrators maintain these roads for disaster prevention and river management. There are many users other than cyclists, including official vehicles. Therefore, some roads on the route may have potholes or barricades for cars. If you cycle on these roads, please pay attention to the road and to pedestrians.